

ALEJANDRO PIEDRAHITA BORRERO
Vice President of Corporate Finance
Grupo Argos S.A.

Alejandro Piedrahita was born in Medellin in 1973. He graduated as business manager from Universidad EAFIT. He later made a Master of Science (M.Sc.) in Development Policy at London School of Economics and holds a degree from the Business Program in Senior Management at the Universidad de La Sabana. Additionally, he participated in the General Management Program at Harvard University.

He has over 15 years of experience in structuring and implementation of projects in investment banking such as capital markets, corporate finance, financing (project finance and syndicated loans), mergers and acquisitions and derivatives.

Since June 2015, he holds the position as Vice President of Corporate Finance at Grupo Argos. Prior to this position, since 2008 he served as Capital Markets Structuring Vice President at Banca de Inversión Bancolombia S.A. Before he held the position of Derivatives Structuring Manager in Bancolombia S.A. and also worked as Director of Economic Research at Corfinsura S.A. and as Director of Special Projects at Susalud S.A.

He is currently a member of the board of directors of Grupo Sura, Celsia, Muma S.A., Aceros Mapa S.A and ODINSA.