

JORGE MARIO VELÁSQUEZ JARAMILLO

Chief Executive Officer

Grupo Argos S.A.

Jorge Mario Velásquez Jaramillo was born in Bogotá in 1960. He graduated as a Civil Engineer at Escuela de Ingeniería de Antioquia and later made a specialization with emphasis on the cement industry in England. Additionally he participated in the CEO's Management Program at Kellogg School of Management and in the Supply Chain Strategies Program at Stanford University. He also graduated from the High Government Program of the School of Government at the Universidad de los Andes.

As of April 1, 2016, he serves as Chief Executive Officer of Grupo Argos S.A, holding company of the Argos Business Group which has presence in 17 countries and strategic investments in the cement industry, energy, and concessions business. Before becoming CEO of Grupo Argos, Mr. Velásquez served as CEO of Cementos Argos S.A. since 2012, a leader company in the cement business in Colombia with presence in more than 14 countries and currently the second most important player in the cement business in the southeast region of the United States.

In the past, Mr. Velasquez held various positions in Cementos Argos, including: Logistics Vice President, General Manager of Cementos del Nare, CEO of Cementos Paz del Rio and Vice President for the Caribbean Region with responsibility for operations in Panamá, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Suriname and island territories and Argos' international trade.

He is currently member of the board of directors of Grupo Sura, Cementos Argos, CELSIA, COMPAS, the Colombian Chamber of Infrastructure, the Colombian National Business Association, the Dividendo por Colombia Foundation and the Superior Council of the Universidad EIA.